

AFRICAN AMERICAN FAMILY GATHERING

FOR THOSE WHO LOVE AFRICAN AMERICAN CHILDREN

Washington Hall, 153 14th Ave, Seattle, 98122
January 24, 2017 from 6:00pm – 8:30pm

A CONVERSATION WITH DR. EDWIN NICHOLS, PHD

Dr. Edwin Nichols is working with families and communities to equip every child to succeed. He will share practical information and tools to help us nourish the brilliance of our children. He will explain the role of culture in how we process and learn, as well as explain cultural values and differences.

Dr. Edwin Nichols is a clinical/industrial psychologist and Director of Nichols and Associates, an applied behavioral science firm in Washington, DC.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION BY AMERICAN HISTORY TRAVELING MUSEUM: UNSPOKEN TRUTHS

FOOD AND ACTIVITIES FOR CHILDREN!

For more information contact: Emijah Smith at ashantimichai@gmail.com or Kristopher Green at kristopher@eastafricans.org.

Village of Hope, South King County Discipline Coalition, American History Travelling Museum: Unspoken Truths, Central and Southeast Executive Directors of Seattle Public Schools, Community, and Families made this event possible.